As an associate in Conroy Simberg's Orlando office, Matthew H. Wolfe's practice includes a broad range of insurance defense cases ranging from automobile accidents, negligent security, and premises liability. He is admitted to practice in all Florida State courts as well as the Middle District of Florida.

Matthew earned a juris doctor from Barry University School of Law, where he actively competed in multiple national competitions as a member of the school's mock trial team. He earned a degree in Philosophy and minored in Economics at the University of South Florida. Matthew joined Conroy Simberg after 2 years at a preeminent plaintiff's personal injury practice in Central Florida where he prosecuted bodily injury claims on behalf of injured parties. He now seeks to bring the knowledge and experience gained to the insurance defense side.
