Automobile & Motorized Vehicle Litigation

Experienced Automobile Litigation Defense Attorneys

With approximately 130 attorneys working in 13 offices strategically located in Florida and Georgia, Conroy Simberg has the resources and skills necessary to successfully defend against all types of automobile and motorized vehicle liability claims. We have more than forty years of experience representing a variety of industry clients, including insurance companies and their insureds, individual and commercial vehicle owners, self-insured companies, automobile dealerships, automotive retail and service establishments.

The automobile litigation defense attorneys at Conroy Simberg handle all categories of motor vehicle litigation cases, including:

- Automobile; motorcycle; boat, personal watercraft; and all-terrain accident claims
- Uninsured and underinsured motorists cases
- Personal Injury Protection (PIP) claims
- Product liability claims, including tire tread separation and other automotive part defect cases. Property damage claims
- Bad faith and extra contractual litigation cases
- Complex liability cases arising in the trucking industry
- Automobile service and repair claims

Building a Strong Case

When clients work with our automobile litigation group, they receive the attention and services of an experienced partner, along with a full-fledged legal team to handle their case. Our attorneys and legal professionals have decades of experience successfully investigating and defending against automobile liability claims. They take the time to thoroughly investigate each case, gather evidence, identify witnesses, and consult with industry experts capable of analyzing claims involving complex medical and engineering issues. Our team of professionals works to reconstruct accidents in order to determine:

- The cause of the accident and who is at fault;
- The causes and extent of any injuries suffered; and
- Potential damage amounts

Liability cases require a careful review of the parties' insurance contracts. The attorneys in our automobile litigation group are well-versed in the complex issues related to automobile insurance coverage. They use their extensive experience interpreting these types of policies to develop strategies targeted at building a strong case and generating the most favorable results for our clients.

Quick and Cost-Effective Automobile/Motorized Vehicle Settlements

Conroy Simberg is committed to providing personalized attention and service to each of our clients. We strive to comply with all company guidelines and reporting requirements and we keep our clients apprised of all legal developments that may impact their case. Our attorneys provide clients with an early evaluation of their liability claim and work together to design approaches aimed at closing the case quickly and on budget. The members of our legal team also communicate with claims adjusters as soon as possible after an accident or injury in an effort to create a plan of action to swiftly dismiss or settle the case.

In the event that an acceptable settlement cannot be negotiated, our lawyers are prepared to represent clients at all stages of the litigation process. The attorneys in our automobile litigation group have extensive mediation, arbitration and courtroom experience. They combine this experience with their unique understanding of the automobile and insurance industries to devise litigation tactics and methods that best protect our clients' interests and objectives.

We are proud of our history and reputation as a leader in Florida automobile defense litigation. We use a team approach to develop and present the strongest defense possible for each of our clients. Our goal is to resolve our clients' cases quickly and efficiently, while aggressively preserving and promoting their legal rights and financial interests.